QUIRINDI HIGH COMMEMORATES REMEMBRANCE DAY

Representatives from Quirindi High attended the RSL Sub Branch Commemoration at the town clock. School captains Hollie Sampson and Jake Douglas and Vice Captains Brittany Beveridge and Daniel Rea delivered readings to acknowledge service and sacrifice in all wars. Year 10 student Lucy Crane also did a wonderful job singing the national anthem. All five students represented the school in a respectful way, and their participation in the ceremony was appreciated by community members in attendance.

The rest of the school observed a minutes silence at 11 am, and students were asked to reflect on the sacrifices made by service personnel which has allowed Australia to be a free and safe society.

Message from the Relieving Principal

On Thursday night we hosted a farewell dinner for the Year 12 Class of 2015. The event was organised by Mr Chris Owen and from all accounts it was an enjoyable evening that finalised the students’ time with us in a stylish manner. Unfortunately, I was unable to attend due to commitments with an excursion to Sydney with the HSC cohort of 2016 but Mr Harries was able to step into the breach and deliver the Principal's Address.

This week we received exciting news that Joshua Hamblin and Mitchell Medway have been invited by the Institute of Industrial Arts Technology Education to nominate their major work pieces in Industrial Technology for inclusion in InTech 2016. This exhibition is run annually and displays the outstanding Major Design Projects developed by HSC Industrial Technology students. This is a great honour and we congratulate the boys on their hard work and efforts which are being recognised in such a significant manner. Thanks also to Mr Carl Harradine who supported the boys and provided his expertise in class and also spent time outside of the classroom to help the boys achieve this outstanding outcome.

We are currently trying to finalise numbers for end of year excursion for Years 7-10 students. If you have not already done so please make contact with the front office to let them know if your child will be attending the excursion. Parents are reminded that we do have access to a student support fund to assist families in getting their students onto the excursions. If we can help out please don’t hesitate to contact us.

A reminder to parents that mobile phones are not to be used by students between 8.55 am and 3.25pm on school days, if you need to contact your child please do so through our front office on 67461177.

In a recent newsletter I included information about whooping cough; we have had a couple of reported cases at the school. Parents are asked not to send their children to school when they are unwell and in the contagious period of an illness. If your son or daughter is sick please notify the school and we will record it against their absence.

As always should you have any queries or concerns regarding the educational opportunities being provided at the school please contact us to make an appointment to come in and see us.

On Thursday 5th November QHS was visited by Bob, an expert from The Australian Reptile Park. He presented interested students with a lecture on misconceptions about reptiles that highlighted their importance to Australian ecosystems. It was an excellent presentation and all participants enjoyed it thoroughly.

THE WHOLE OF MY WORLD

By Nicole Hayes

An unputdownable novel for anyone who’s ever loved or lost, drawn a line between then and now, or kept a secret that wouldn’t stay hidden . . .

‘Today I am free. No guilt for who’s missing, what’s been left behind. My face aches from smiling in the wind and my voice rasps from all the screaming, and I know that it’s been forever since I’ve felt so completely alive.’

Desperate to escape her grieving father and harbouring her own terrible secret, Shelley disappears into the intoxicating world of Aussie Rules football. Joining a motley crew of footy tragic – and, best of all, making friends with one of the star players – Shelley finds somewhere to belong. Finally she’s winning.

So why don’t her friends get it? Josh, who she’s known all her life, but who she can barely look at anymore because of the memories of that fateful day. Tara, whose cold silences Shelley can’t understand. Everyone thinks there’s something more going on between Shelley and Mick. But there isn’t – is there?

The strategy we are going to try is ABC. It is called ABC, because you don’t want to note everything (the whole alphabet) you just want the summary hint (the ABC).

A) Read the first sentence of the paragraph and stop to think: what do you expect to find out in this paragraph?

B) Now read the whole paragraph, one sentence at a time. Don’t worry about words you don’t understand. Try to ‘guess’ what the word might mean, within the whole sentence.

For example, read this sentence: “At 9am the bell fjdsajfdlasjdksal and everyone went to assembly.” Obviously, fjdsajfdlasjdksal isn’t really a word, but reading that whole sentence, what do you think ‘fjdsajfdlasjdksal’ means? …………………………………………………

C) At the end of the paragraph, write about 5-10 words to summarise the key point. You can summarise in single key words or in sentences.

E.G:

Julius Caesar was born c.100BC in Rome. His family were noble but poor. We don’t know much about Caesar’s early life, except that his father died suddenly when Julius was 16, leaving him as head of the family.

Caesar was an excellent soldier and soon became a General. He was appointed governor of Spain in 61BC, where he successfully crushed rebellions by the Spanish. The Romans were very proud of their army, so Caesar’s military victories made him popular with Roman plebeians. Therefore, the following year, Caesar returned home to pursue a political career.

As part of his election campaign, Caesar spoke to the people about Rome’s problems of high taxes, slave labour, unemployment and corruption in the Senate and promised to solve them. The people loved him and the Senate became afraid that the people would elect Caesar as Consul. Rich senators began campaigning to turn the plebeians against Caesar. However, Caesar made a deal with two important patricians: Pompey and Crassus. Pompey was the most famous Roman General and was adored by the public. Caesar married his daughter, Julia, to Pompey, to gain Pompey’s support. Crassus was extremely rich and, therefore, very influential. Crassus hated the Senate because it had given credit to Pompey for crushing Spartacus’ slave rebellion, when it had actually been Crassus who led the army. Caesar’s promises to curb the Senate were attractive to Crassus. Although Pompey and Crassus hated each other, they were both prepared to support Caesar in his election campaign. As a result, Caesar was elected Consul in 59BC.

This isn’t the only way of summarising, it’s just my example. You summarise in your own way. Pictures can work just as well as words, if you prefer. The important thing is not to spend ages – do it quickly!

OVERDUE LIBRARY BOOKS & TEXTBOOKS
